CENTS.

81 1793 Flowing hair; Crosby's plate; obv., 4; rev., C; the hair a trifle worn, but very fine indeed; both obverse and reverse rare.

82 1793 Flowing hair; Crosby, 7–F; edge has bars and vine: uncirculated, the hair and reverse barely touched; very rare.

83 1793 Flowing hair; Crosby, 7–E; in nearly as fine condition as the one illustrated in the plate, though the hair is barely touched; this cent has never been in circulation: extremely rare.

84 1793. Flowing hair; rev., chain "United States of Ameri;" a few little marks on obverse and reverse, but in very fine condition,—with two or three exceptions, as fine as I have ever seen; extremely rare.

85 1793 Flowing hair; rev., chain "United States of America;" very fine, hair rubbed, but not much circulated; very rare.

86 1793 Liberty cap; very good, fine for this variety, perfect die, very rare.

87 1794 Uncirculated, beautiful polished surface; I have seldom seen so fine a cent of this date; very rare.

88 1794 A variety, scarcely inferior to the last; very rare.

89 1795 Thick planchet, lettered edge, very good, nearly fine, scarce.

90 1795 Planchet of medium thickness, plain edge, "One Cent" high in wreath; barely circulated.

91 1795 Jefferson head; very good, with perhaps two exceptions, equal to any known. With the exception of the clover leaf '93, this is the rarest variety in the whole series of American cents.

92 1796 Liberty cap; very little circulated, rare.

93 1796 Fillet head; uncirculated, rare.

94 1797 Splendid, nearly proof impression, extremely rare.

95 1798 Uncirculated, the redness of the copper still remaining in spots, very rare.

96 1798 Broad milling, large planchet, very fine, rare.

97 1799 Very fine for this date, every portion, both obverse and reverse, being perfectly distinct. No finer cent of this date has recently been offered at auction. Guaranteed original,—the rarest date in the series.

98 1800 Very fine, barely circulated.
99 1801 Uncirculated, rare.
100 1802 Uncirculated, fine surface and color, rare.
101 1802 Uncirculated, bright,—one of the finest I have ever seen, very rare.
102 1803 Companion piece to the last, extremely rare.
103 1804 perfect die; a small hole has been plugged, in other respects good, very rare.
104 1804 Broken die; very fine for this variety, genuineness guaranteed, very rare.
105 1805 Fine, but a trifle circulated.
106 1806 Better than the last, barely circulated, rare in this condition.
107 1807 Mostly bright, uncirculated, extremely rare.
108 1808 Dark color, very fine indeed, rare.
109 1809 Not a sharp impression, but has been scarcely any in circulation, very fine and rare.
110 1810 Perfectly uncirculated, in part bright, extremely rare.
111 1811 over 1810 Fine, very scarce.
112 1811 Perfect date, uninjured by circulation, rare.
113 1812 Fine impression, uncirculated, rare.
114 1813 Uncirculated, stars not well up, rare.
115 1814 Uncirculated, very rare.

164 1857 Large date, bright, uncirculated.
165 1857 Small date, uncirculated, nearly proof.

HALF CENTS.

166 1793 The hair barely touched, but I think the piece has never been in circulation; very fine and rare.

167 1794 Uncirculated, fine impression, in this condition quite as rare as 1793.

168 1795 Thick planchet, lettered edge; rare.

169 1796 The obverse of this piece is good, being distinct in every part; the reverse is not so good, though all parts are legible except "one" in "One Cent"; in this condition very desirable, the rarest of all the half cents.

170 1797 Scarcely any circulated, though not a strong impression, very scarce.

171 1800 Uncirculated.

172 1802 Fine for this date, which is seldom found good, rare.

173 1803 Uncirculated.

174 1804 Very fine.

175 1805 Uncirculated, scarce.

176 1806 Bright, uncirculated.

1670 A collection of Chinese Coins, covering a period of 4,234 years; the earliest coin is of the Shun Dynasty, and assigned to the date of 2,354 B. C. The collection illustrates the Mongul, the Ming, and the present Tartar Dynasty,—the seven sovereigns of which are largely represented.

In addition are many coins of Rebels and Pretenders; coins of Corea, Cochin China, and Loo Choo, together with a number of Astrological medals of great antiquity and rarity. Most of the pieces are of the usual circular form, but many other forms are presented — square, forked, razor shape, etc. In weight they vary from the ordinary cash of a few grains to a medal token of half a pound. Arranged on two sheets of cotton cloth, each about a yard square, and each coin marked with date, &c., in English and Chinese.

This collection was formed by Rev. Mr. Hartwell, late missionary in China. 501 pieces.

NUMISMATIC BOOKS, &c.

Frequent inquiries are addressed to me, as to what Numismatic Books are desirable for the young student, and what periodicals are published in the country treating on the subject of Numismatics; to the latter part of the inquiry I here attempt to give a general answer, to which correspondents are respectfully referred.

The American Journal of Numismatics.

The first number of this Periodical was issued May, 1866, in New York, under the auspices of the American Numismatic and Archæological Society, and it was continued as a monthly for four years, under the same management; at the end of which time, and at the close of the fourth volume, the publication was transferred to the Boston Numismatic Society, and has since been issued as a quarterly, under the supervision and editorial management of Messrs. Appleton, Green, and Colburn of that Society. It is in its fifteenth year. This Journal, which began well, has steadily improved, until it now holds a high rank in the periodical numismatic literature of the world; its volumes are in themselves a library, and without them any American Numismatic Library is but a fragment. Subscription, $2 a year; address Jeremiah Colburn, Boston, Mass.

THE CANADIAN ANTIQUARIAN AND NUMISMATIC JOURNAL.

As numismatists and antiquarians we know nothing of the line which separates the United States from the dominions of the good Queen,—hence this excellent publication finds a place in this list. The first number appeared in July, 1872. It is published quarterly, and every number is filled with able and interesting original articles, unsurpassed by those in any kindred publication. The number for July, when issued, will be the first of volume eight. It is published by the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Montreal,—subscription, $1.50 a year. Address Geo. A. Holmes, Treasurer, Box 1310 Montreal, Canada.

NUMISMA.

A small quarto paper of eight pages, is now near the close of its fourth year; its editor, a coin dealer, never forgets that he is a gentleman, and his neat paper is always filled with entertaining, original matter. Issued bi-monthly. Subscription, 50 cents a year. Address Ed Frossard, Editor and Proprietor, Irvington, New York.

THE KURIOSITI KABINET.

Commenced as a monthly in 1870, and regularly issued until August, 1871. Suspended for a time, its publication was resumed in 1872, in which year appeared Vol. 2, No. 1; in 1873 No. 2 came out, which in April, 1876, was followed by No. 3. Since then the proprietor, William P. Brown, 145 Nassau Street, New York, has issued his paper occasionally, and sends it gratuitously to his friends.

THE COIN COLLECTOR'S JOURNAL.

The first number of this was issued December, 1875; at first it was under the editorial management of Mr. Frossard, and gave promise of character and usefulness, but since Mr. Frossard's withdrawal in favor of the present editorial incumbent, Mr. Scissors, who has so many papers to take care of, its high promise has not been maintained, though its owner advertises this in connection with a similar publication devoted to the sale of second-hand postage stamps, as "the leading papers in their lines, (50,000 circulation.)" Probably about three figures can be safely dropped from this enumeration, and the paper may be bought for one year for one dollar, sent to Mr. Scott, at 146 Fulton Street, New York City.

MASON'S COIN COLLECTOR'S HERALD.

No. 1 is dated June, 1879, a quarto of eight pages, somewhat larger than NUMISMA, and issued quarterly. This paper is the successor of MASON'S COIN AND STAMP COLLECTOR'S MAGAZINE, which commenced in 1867 and ended in 1872. The editor of the Herald wields a facile pen, with a sharp point, dipped in ink with just gall enough to prevent it from souring; his paper is always lively and readable. Address E. Mason, Jr., 143 North Tenth St., Philadelphia. Subscription, $1 a year.

MASON'S NUMISMATIC VISITOR AND PRICE CURRENT is published as a Supplement to the Herald, to whose subscribers it is sent free; to non-subscribers the price is 50 cents a year.

THE COIN JOURNAL

was first issued July, 1879, of small size; has been several times enlarged, until at present it is a respectable sized quarto of eight pages. It is announced as a quarterly, at the modest subscription price of 25 cents a year. Its editor and proprietor is Charles Steigerwalt, of Lancaster, Penn.

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC HERALD.

The first number bears date 1879, and announced itself as an annual; circulation 25 copies, and subscription price five cents; it is now a semi-annual at ten cents a year, and promises for its next number a circulation of 1200. Its editor, A. B. Carmen, may be addressed at East Richland, Ohio.

COIN COLLECTOR'S ILLUSTRATED GUIDE.

This latest aspirant for numismatic honors is published quarterly in Philadelphia; the first number, containing 20 pages in octavo form, is dated March, 1880, mostly filled with good selections, interesting to coin collectors. Terms, 50 cents a year. Editor and Proprietor, A. M. Smith, 533 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

THE AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN.

Though this publication is not devoted to Numismatics as a specialty, yet, as it treats of subjects dear to the heart of the numismatist, it is given a place in this list. It is an illustrated quarterly of 72 pages, and treats on all subjects pertaining to the Antiquities of America, Coins, Indian and Pre-historic Remains, Stone and Copper Implements, Indian Languages, Customs, and Traditions, &c., &c. No subject interesting to the American archaeologist is neglected. In connection with it is published another quarterly, THE ORIENTAL AND BIBLICAL JOURNAL, devoted especially to the archaeology of Classical, Biblical and Oriental Lands. Both of these Journals have as contributors the most eminent scholars and specialists in the various departments. They are edited with signal ability by Rev. Stephen D. Peet, of Clinton, Wisconsin, and are deserving of a liberal support. The subscription price of the American Antiquarian is $3 a year; of the Oriental Journal, $2; or the two magazines for $4. The Antiquarian is now near the close of its second year. Published by Jameson and Morse, Chicago, Illinois.

I will undertake to forward subscriptions to any of the publications mentioned, free of cost to the subscribers or publishers, and earnestly recommend numismatists and archaeologists to do as I do myself—subscribe for every one of them. W. E. W.

THE

Medals of the Masonic Fraternity,

Described and Illustrated

BY

W. T. R. MARVIN.

A descriptive Catalogue, with nearly twenty plates of rare and interesting Medals, is now in course of publication by the undersigned. The list will contain descriptions of between six and seven hundred Masonic Medals, with full indexes, so that any piece catalogued can be easily found. References to corresponding numbers in Merzdorf's (German) work, and a chapter on the Freemasons' Arms, with an illuminated plate in proper colors, copious notes (historical, biographical, &c.), will give additional value to the work, which will contain about three hundred pages, cap quarto.

One hundred and sixty copies only printed.

One hundred and twenty five only for sale, exclusively by subscription. Price, complete, $10, payable $5, at time of subscription, and balance on delivery of III. and IV. parts. Part I. and II. now ready. Part III. and IV. in press, and will be ready shortly. If sent by mail, postage, 8 cents for each part, additional.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Catalogue of the Haines collection is now in the hands of the Printer, and will be ready for distribution about the end of September. The Sale will take place October 13, 14, 15, 16, at the usual place. Since the first announcement of this Sale I have made the Catalogue, and will remark that the American Mint series in silver and copper lacks only the 1804 Dollar, and one other and the Coins are in even better condition than I expected to find them. In addition to American Coins, the English Mint is well represented, and the Catalogue will comprise many fine and interesting pieces representing the coinage of many countries. The Catalogue will be No. 32 of the series.

The Jenks Collection of Fine Ancient and Foreign Coins is also in hand, and some progress has been made with the Catalogue. This portion of Mr. Jenks's Collection is quite as fine as the American, and is, I think, more extensive in several departments than any similar cabinet ever sold here. It is particularly rich in Greek, Roman, English, and Oriental Coins. In each of these classes will be found many desirable things, some of which are so rare that their appearance will be a surprise to collectors. The Sale will be No. 33. For Catalogues, address with stamp.

I now have on my list of coin collectors and buyers nearly 3,000 names. It is obvious that only a small part can be supplied with Catalogues, but I desire to place those which I do send out where they "will do the most good." I therefore respectfully request that each person receiving this Catalogue from me will acknowledge its receipt by mail, as change of residence and other causes occasion a loss of copies, which I wish to avoid as much in the interest of collectors as myself. Though I print a very large number, I am compelled by the great demand to deny many applications that happen to come late.
